

BSBOG ASM Programme 21/09/18

Newham University Hospital, Glen Rd, London, E13 8SL , Tel. 020 7476 4000 (bartshealth.nhs.uk)

The Effect of Biopsychosocial Factors on Pregnancy and Neonatal Outcome

8:30 – 9	Registration
9 – 9:05	Welcome Miss Ferha Saeed, Consultant Fetal Medicine Obstetrician & Gynaecologist, Barts Health NHS Trust
9:05 – 9:10	Introduction to BSBOG Mr Remon Keriakos, Chairperson of BSBOG, Consultant Obstetrician & Gynaecologist
9:10 – 9:40	Role of Diet in Pregnancy Outcomes Professor Shakila Thangaratinam, Professor of Maternal and Perinatal Health, Barts Health NHS Trust, Joint Director of BARC
9:40 – 10:10	Birth Reflections: Therapeutic or Traumatizing? Ms Cathy Falvey-Browne, Consultant Midwife in Public Health, Barts Health NHS Trust
10:10 – 10:40	Culture and Perinatal Psychiatry: Bangladeshi Mental Health Professor Simon Dein, Consultant Psychiatrist, South Essex Partnership University Trust
10:40 – 11:00	Coffee
11:00 – 11:30	Culture and Perinatal Biopsychosocial Factors in Prenatal Screening and Diagnosis for Fetal Anomaly Dr Louise Bryant, Associate Professor in Medical Psychology, University of Leeds
11:30 – 12:00	Family Integrated Care for Neonates Dr Martin Ward Platt, Consultant Paediatrician, Royal Victoria Infirmary
12:00 – 12:30	Modern Slavery: Training Healthcare Professionals to Identify and Refer Victims of Human Trafficking Dr Toby Bonvoisin, Foundation Year 1 Trainee
12:30 – 13:30	Lunch
13:30 – 14:30	Trainee Oral Presentations
14:30 – 15:00	Reflections on Pregnancy Loss Care in the East End of London Mr Rehan Khan, Consultant Obstetrician & Gynaecologist, Barts Health NHS Trust
15:00 – 15:30	Biopsychosocial Influence on Multiple Pregnancy Outcomes Dr Elena Greco, Consultant in Fetal Medicine, Barts Health NHS Trust
15:30 – 16:00	Violence Against Women and Pregnancy Dr Ed Mullins, Speciality Trainee in Obstetrics & Gynaecology, London Deanery
16:00 – 16:20	Biopsychosocial Determinants and Impact on Pregnancy in East London Miss Ferha Saeed & Dino Sarpi, Business Intelligence Unit, Barts Health NHS Trust
16:20 – 16:30	Close and Prizes

